

Honors US & G ³/₄
Unit 6 - The Cold War
(2 weeks)

OBJECTIVES: The student will:

1. be able to analyze the roots of the Cold War
2. be able to identify leading individuals and the role they played in the emergence of communist China
3. understand the change in America's attitude toward world leadership
4. understand the long-range results of the Korean War
5. know and understand the significance of the following:

Big 3	Yalta Conference	Potsdam Conference	Cold War
UN Security Council	Marshall Plan	Truman Conference	Berlin Airlift
NATO	GI Bill	Taft-Hartley Act	Iron Curtain
containment	The Long March	38 th parallel	demobilization
Fair Deal	Chiang Kai-shek	Mao Zedong	George Marshall
Dean Acheson	Douglas MacArthur	Robert Taft

SOURCES OF INFORMATION:

Lectures: Effects of a Nuclear Explosion
Roots of the Cold War
Chinese Communist Revolution
Korean War

Video: "China in Revolution: 1911-1949"
"The Presidents: Truman"
"The Century: Best Years"

Prentice Hall Text: pp. 868-874, 876-880, 885-888, 904, 912-914

Glencoe Text: pp. 575-579, 634, 723-726